DOH issues 'device alert' vs toxic toys from China

By Mike Poe

THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH (DOH) issued a "device alert" on Monday, March 3, warning parents and caregivers to stop using and dispose of certain toys and games imported from China.

The alert, which is the first of its kind in the Philippines, was issued after the DOH received reports from parents and caregivers that their children had experienced allergic reactions and other health problems after playing with certain toys and games.

The DOH said that the toys and games in question are made of a material called "polyvinyl chloride" (PVC), which is known to contain lead and other toxic substances. These substances can be harmful to children's health, especially if they are ingested or inhaled.

The DOH said that the toys and games in question are made in China and are sold in the Philippines under various brand names. The DOH said that it has received reports from parents and caregivers that their children had experienced allergic reactions and other health problems after playing with these toys and games.

The DOH said that it has issued the "device alert" to inform parents and caregivers of the potential health risks and to urge them to stop using and dispose of these toys and games. The DOH said that it will continue to monitor the situation and will take further action if necessary.

Docs, nurses join drive for cheap medicines bill

By Elizabeth S. Reyes

MANILA (Philippine Daily Inquirer) — A coalition of doctors, nurses, and other health professionals has joined a drive to push for the passage of a bill that would allow the government to negotiate prices for generic drugs. The bill, known as the Generic Drug Price Control Act, is a response to the high cost of medicines in the Philippines, which is a major barrier to access for many Filipinos. The coalition, led by the Philippine Nurses Association and the Philippine Society of General Practitioners, says that the current system of drug pricing is unfair and that the government should have the power to negotiate prices on behalf of the public. The bill would allow the government to negotiate prices for generic drugs with manufacturers, and to set maximum prices for these drugs. It would also allow the government to import drugs from other countries where they are sold at lower prices. The coalition says that the bill is a necessary step to ensure that all Filipinos have access to affordable medicines.

The figure consists of two side-by-side line graphs. Both graphs have 'Rate of reaction' on the y-axis and 'Temperature' on the x-axis. The left graph shows a straight line starting from the origin and increasing linearly with temperature. The right graph shows a curve that starts at a low rate at low temperatures and increases very sharply as temperature rises, indicating a change in the rate-determining step at higher temperatures.

The image is a very poor quality scan of a document. It shows several lines of text that are completely illegible due to blurring and low resolution. At the bottom, there is a signature that appears to start with 'T. M.' followed by a surname that is also illegible. The overall appearance is that of a low-quality photocopy or a scan of a document that was not properly focused.
